The owner has been there for almost 40 years. That's amazing! And what's even more amazing is that he still remembers me after 20 years of not being there. If you are really into authentic Taiwanese food, then I suggest ordering stinky tofu. There are not many places that still make them. But if you are not adventurous enough, then please don't bother to push yourself; stinky tofu is not for you! It's an acquired tas... read more. What Ray C

doesn't like about Lee's Garden:

I had high hopes when I saw all these raved reviews, but I was disappointed by the mediocrity of the foods I ordered. I should have trusted my gut feeling because the place looks dirty it's like hole I'm the wall in a bad way! The fried pork chops are very paper thin and full of bones. Why aren't they crunchy at all? The stinky tofu was not crispy. read more. A visit to Lee's Garden is particularly valuable due to the comprehensive variety of coffee and tea specialties.
