The experience was fantastic! From the start with the small cute pink kimono host to the amazing hibachi chef with the onion volcano. This place literally makes food fun again and again! The bar drink options are huge but one thing I will have to say is the bar is too big for the bartender. Someone please tip this small man a stool. Food: 5/5 read more. When the weather conditions are nice you can also eat outside, and there is complimentary WiFi. What Jeff Bowman doesn't like about Kani House Johns Creek:

Beef bento box came with 2 tiny pieces of beef, missing fried rice, sauce and half of my miso soup all over the bag covering everything. Called manager, he insisted that the fried rice was in the bag and there was nothing he could do, and the bento box comes with 'less' beef. Plain and simply put, if the amount of beef in my bento was standard it should be called a vegetarian bento box. read more. Kani House Johns Creek from Duluth is a good option for a bar if you want to have a drink after work and hang out with friends. In addition, the sweet desserts of the establishment shine not only in the eyes of the little guests. It goes without saying that a suitable drink completes a meal; therefore this gastropub provides a sophisticated diversity of fine and regional alcoholic options, be it beer or wine. The inventive fusion of different menus with fresh and partially daring products is highly valued by the guests - a good example of Asian Fusion.
