I've been here once before and the owner was very welcoming along with the food being good. My second time today I didn't get the chance to order. The customer service was unprofessional. The woman didn't acknowledge us started blasting music interacting with other customers, not even really serving them. It was just a lot going on. I was very hungry so I went somewhere else. I'm not sure how the food was but I rather... read more.
