My one knock though is how they're not pet friendly even outside. It makes zero sense to not allow pets on leashes as it's perfect setting for that. We have to travel with dogs and we had to do takeout instead of enjoying the atmosphere and buying more drinks to enjoy the evening. Loved the food and location but that was odd and I think would keep me from going here again read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something. WLAN is available for free. What S W doesn't like about Dos Alas Cubarican Cafe Lounge:

It has a rustic ambiance with Caribbean vibe. It's a resort town, and it's reflected in their pricing. Flavors are ok. Our pork skewer was dry. We have pickled shrimp and octopus; the flavor is all right, but it's kind of off putting with eggs and oil. Guava Glazed Ham was cooked very nicely; however it is way too sweet. Ground beef stew with rice was interesting; olives made the dish work. However, all the entrees are... read more.
