Before we hit the road for home, we took in a wonderful little breakfast nook in Salida called Robin's. The atmosphere is artsy and whimsical, and the staff is friendly and attentive. I had eggs on a bed of corned beef and country potatoes with rye toast, and my wife had peach almond pancakes with a side of bacon. Everything was outstanding, including the coffee! Outside, there are huge purple sage plants. If you can f... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and be served in pleasant weather. What L D doesn't like about Robin's In Salida:

Sure would be nice if you got the order correct when paying $19.19 for a fried chicken sandwich. Got back to work to find a rubbery grilled chicken sandwich instead. Also charging a to go fee is bogus. Then also a non cash fee too. Just add a $1.50 to all the already overpriced food items on the menu. read more. A visit to Robin's In Salida becomes even more rewarding due to the large selection of coffee and tea specialties, The fine sandwiches, small salads and other snacks are also suitable for a snack. If you decide to come for breakfast, a hearty brunch is ready for you.
