Everything we tried was delicious. The beef and onion dumplings and the cumin lamb were our favs. We did ask for the dishes to be spicy and wish it were a bit more spicier. read more. I do NOT recommend…fried rice smelled like raw eggs, was cooked in a wok that was not rinsed. Half of the Gen Tso was tossed with sauce in a wok- the other half was fried, placed on top with sauce poured over it. So the sauce was mainly the bottom of the plate. read more.
