My parents came into town and wanted to take my husband and me out to dinner. Our first choice was closed due to moving, so we scrambled and I picked here as it was down the road from their hotel. The food was good, especially for suburban dining (I mean this as a compliment, I swear). We weren't expecting the very best of Dallas, but we wanted better than Applebee's, and it definitely delivered. The best thing about... read more.
