The food was good and tasted very good. It was a a good change from regular sushi but a bit expensive for vegetables. They should have an all you can eat as there did not seem to be any that was expensive ingredients. read more. In pleasant weather you can even eat in the outdoor area, And into the accessible spaces also come guests with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about Daikon Vegan Sushi:

Quite over priced when considering the portion sizes. The Karaage is especially underwhelmed in size. Also, To add a small bit of avocado to your roll is almost $2... which I find ridiculous. Aside from these issues However, the Service is prompt and food is good. I'd recommend locals and tourists alike to make a stop here if in the area read more.
