Discovered Brunk's Butchery on Instagram and finally had the chance to visit due to my love for steaks. Arriving a bit late, I found the place closed, but to my surprise, the owner came out and warmly invited me in, assuring it wasn't an imposition. I ended up purchasing three thick slices of prime ribeye, and they were nothing short of amazing – perfect marbling and incredibly flavorful. Excited to return and explor... read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Brunk's Butchery:

After reading some of the reviews on their sandwiches I decided to give them a try. Well I was disappointed. First of all, no tomato or lettuce used for the sandwich. They used scredded cheese instead of sliced cheese which falls out as you the sandwich. The bread was a bit dry/tough to chew on. The saving grace was the amount of meat which was good. Luckily I bought a bottle of water to help swallow the dry bread san... read more. The establishment also offers its guests a catering service.
