Server was excellent and inspired us to try the grappa which as delicious. The only disappointment was that the pasta was over sauced and was not allowed to be the star of the show! I will come again and order the same dish but with the peas to or sauce on the side so I can appreciate the work of the pasta maker read more.

What Alyson Collins doesn't like about Grappa:

Not a lot of Gluten Free options but a fun atmosphere. If you're in a pinch fine, but not my first choice. I've been a couple of times and ordered both a GF pizza and GF pasta dish. All in all, nothing too special or tasty. I'm grateful they have a few options, but not overly impressed by the quality for the price. Last time I went the service was friendly and well paced. I did appreciate how the manager came out and... read more. During a meal, a good drink is essential. In this gastropub, you not only get delicious cuisine from the menu but also a comprehensive and particularly good selection of good beers and other alcoholic beverages that go well with the food, You can take a break at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. There's also tasty pizza, baked straight from the oven using original methods.
