Food was delicious. Outdoor area had heat lamps and so we stayed warm in the evening. My daughter has Celiac disease and they were knowledgeable and did a great job accommodating her with a gluten free pasta dish. I had the special which was sea bass and it was cooked to perfection. Owner/manager checked on us.

Upscale food but no snooty attitude. read more. What PickyVoyager doesn't like about Opal:

The food was OK/fine, but nothing very special. The service was average, except that they tried to overcharge us at the end, by adding a $20 item that we did not order. I am not sure that that was an accident. They did promise to fix it, though. read more.
