I highly recommend making a reservation. The wait was long but worth it. Lita is a fantastic restaurant for friends and family. The portions are generous and the food is delicious. Order the empeñadas, the oxtail., the salmon or even the steak. No matter what you are craving your taste buds will be satisfied. read more. The premises on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. WiFi is available for free. What Photogenic Hillbilly doesn't like about Lita:

Music is too loud for conversation. The food came out too fast, even after asking the server we wanted to pace the meal. (Seriously, we were in the middle of sharing our first appetizer together when the salad for one of the meals was served. They started taking our plates before we were finished. The rice was mealy and bland; but the black pepper shrimp was way too salty. The skirt steak was fatty and chewy. But the... read more.
