I've eaten here twice now and plan on eating here again. After dedicating my time to healthier restaurants, this place has become a favorite of mine. From the bowls to the smoothies to the burgers, this place is the A-list of healthy dining. Check it out! The service is friendly, and the ambiance is a little quieter than I'm used to, but no matter. read more. The premises in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, and there is free WiFi. If the weather conditions are right, you can also be served outside. What Kathleen O'Connor doesn't like about Clean Eatz:

We have been here on a few occasions but we originally ate at the Norfolk location. The portions in Chesapeake are HORRIBLE, Norfolk portions are plentiful. I feel like it's a big waste of money when we come to the Chesapeake location which sucks because we live in Chesapeake. I won't be coming back until whoever is in charge decides to stop being stingy. read more.
