After hearing of Yoyo's via word of mouth and various online forums, I finally made it here one hot day. I'd usually reserve a hot soupy soba for a karl-fogged overcast SF day, but I gave it a shot this day and I was happy I did. I spent a fair bit in Japan earlier this year and ate a lot of soba, so I had a point of comparison. The soba here was simple (as it should be), slurpy and plenty for a low price. The couple...
