This is a classy restaurant with gorgeous views of Salt Lake City's Temple Square. It is a buffet extraordinaire!

This night there was prime rib and King crab claws and vegetables and other entrées and sides with fancy ingredients including a gourmet mac cheese. The decadent desserts were presented in small portions so that you could sample several of them. read more. What niko pix doesn't like about The Roof Restaurant:

This is an old review and is based on before they closed during pandemic/renovation. Found some photos so I decided to write this review anyway. Cost of buffet is on the high range but what you're paying for here is the view. I've dine here several times but there's nothing spectacular in this restaurant. Poor ambience, dated interior, food is comparable to Chuck-a-rama in terms of taste but in an upgraded presentati... read more. The Roof Restaurant from Salt Lake City is a suitable bar to have a beer after work, and sit with friends or alone, Moreover, the delicious desserts of the house shine not only on children's plates and in children's eyes. One also cooks South American here with fresh seafood, meat, as well as beans and rice, there are also delectable vegetarian meals on the menu.
