Very spacious dining area, lots of parking, and clean. We ordered the Italian sub and was really good. Soft bread, great place to come if you have braces, I remember I wouldn't eat subs cause the bread was usually hard and would hurt to eat. read more. What Katharina Hintz doesn't like about Meconi's Italian Subs:

We have loved Meconi for years, but it seems lately their prices have far exceeded the rise in inflation. Even at our last visit, they weren't as busy, but the sandwiches took what seemed like five times longer than they had. And even with the higher costs and super long wait one was completely unusable when we took it and showed them that they were shocked that they had served a sandwich so burned that one could not...
