Here you can find the menu of JW Steakhouse in Decatur. At the moment, there are 28 courses and drinks on the card. This steakhouse offers a family-style dining experience with a slightly upscale price point. While the service was friendly, it was a bit slow. The salads were fresh and delicious, but some main dishes fell short in terms of execution. The desserts were tasty and reminiscent of homemade treats. However, some dishes like the sweet potato casserole and steak kabobs received mixed reviews. Pricing was deemed high for the portion sizes by some guests. The restaurant's interior was described as needing updates. Overall, the staff was friendly, the food was decent, and there were some standout menu items like the pork chops and Prime rib soup. Despite some inconsistent experiences, many guests expressed a willingness to return in the future.
