Delicious! Fresh salsa. Great queso dip. I had the chicken quesadilla and husband had pork burrito. More food than we could eat. Chips were fabulous. Highly recommend. read more. When the weather is good you can also eat and drink outside, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical limitations.

What Antonina Schuster doesn't like about Blue Coast Burrito:

They short staff their employess and underpay them. All the employees were friendly and doing their best but there was no salsa on the salsa bar the drink machines drip pan was over flowing with ice so bad it was spilling into the floor, and every single coustomer accessible surface was sticky. If they had more than three people working to serve nearly 30 guests I am sure all the issues would be addressed, the owner/... read more. The comprehensive selection of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to Blue Coast Burrito even more worthwhile, tasty vegetarian recipes are also on the menu available. Even the versatile, scrumptious Mexican cuisine, traditionally cooked with corn, beans and chili, is very popular with the visitors, The atmosphere also makes the tasting of typical Western dishes and drinks an beautiful experience.
