This was my first visit to the Pink Poodle in crescent Iowa in 20+ years. I brought my friend who is from Russia. She ordered a steak and I ordered the prime rib. She said the very rustic and outdated decor reminded her of places in Russia. The food was good and the service was very good. This is definitely a place for prime rib. The steak was a good cut of meat but they just seemed to fry it in butter and not much e... read more. What Ariane Gutmann doesn't like about Pink Poodle:

In his day of hay, the Pink Poodle was probably the place to go, but I'm not impressed. The food is ok tasting, but too expensive for what you get. Do not order the potato soup if you think thick creamy. It was skimmed milk with large pieces of vegetables. And pass on the onion rings... I think we paid a ring for $5 or $6. And who needs this long trip for nothing special. read more. Pink Poodle from Crescent is the perfect place if you want to try delicious American menus like burgers or barbecue, and you can look forward to the tasty typical seafood cuisine. If you'd like something dessert for dessert, Pink Poodle does not disappoint with its good selection of desserts, There are also nice South American menus on the menu.
