We arrived in Alaska really early on a Sunday and needed a solid homemade breakfast. This was the place! Not only were the people super nice, but the food was fresh, hot, and tasty! read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. What Jonathan D doesn't like about Jackies Place:

Late Sunday morning breakfast/brunch, jam packed, long wait for the food, over a half hour once I ordered, just way too many people, standing out the door in the rain and the kitchen can hardly keep up with the orders. Good food though and friendly service. read more. The establishment offers you not only delicious fine dishes, but also a good-looking view of the local landmarks, Furthermore, the visitors of the establishment enjoy the comprehensive variety of the various coffee and tea specialities that the establishment has available. As a rule, most meals are prepared in a short time for you and served, here they serve a diverse brunch for breakfast.
