The food was really good and low on the cost side. For the 2 of us it was like 22 bucks so not bad. The only reason I'm not giving 5 stars is because our waitress (older blonde lady) ignored us 90% of the time while talking to other tables and checking on them multiple times. Had to ask another passing waitress for ketchup and hot sauce... Other than that I would definitely go back to oak creek diner. read more. doesn't like about Oak Creek Diner:

It appears you have to be a regular here to be treated as a consumer. The host was the only one that was nice while seating and concluding my stay by paying the bill. The server was rude and short. My skillet came out with raw egg in the dish. I maneuvered as best as I could and ate what was done to specification. The server did not care to check back with me, and had the time to do so as they were only at half capac... read more. At Oak
