You dine right on the air strip, and see landings and take offs all throughout your meal. Christine was our server, and she took great care of us, down to the smallest detail. We all participated with the Dine LA promotion (even though it hasn't officially started yet! and had 1 chicken pasta, and 4 prime ribs. Not one of us had even a tiny complaint! I have been wanting to visit this place fo... read more. The rooms on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities. Restaurant:

The staff appeared inexperienced or working off their original shifts. Asked for window seating but giving a table next to a walkway even though window tables were available. Wasn't told that you could not order from the regular menu only the Valentine's menu was available. This experience was much different compared to the last Valentine's dinner I had here. My lady and I was disappointed by the overall experience.
