What User likes about Rodeo Grill: I found this place with my friend when we were looking for some good food for cheap near Rainbow Springs. The first time we had a bacon cheese burger with fried onions that was so incredible that we knew we had to come back. As I write this review, I have a burger here for the second time. Although from external appearances you would not really expect it, it is a cute little diner in a small town and the service is q... read more.
