What Cristian L likes about Royal 38:

First off let me tell you I'm a HUGE fan of Thai food but here in the dfw area I have found a very few places with the authentic Thai flavor. This places has to be one of the closest I've had in Dallas. If you like Spicy, ask for level

5 spicy otherwise you have the first four levels to choose from. I had the fried beef as an appetizer and the shrimp tom Yahm soup. This soup comes the closest to an amazing place in L... The premises in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. What Sophia F doesn't like about Royal 38:

Their service and quality of the food has deteriorated so much. Recently, I ordered to-go lunch meals over the phone, but found out later that they charged me for dinner price. When I called and questioned about the order and charge, the gentleman over the phone was rude and insisted that it 's MY fault not to tell him that I did not want order dinner meal during lunch time. Really?! For the 30% more expensive dinner... read more. Traditional courses are prepared in the kitchen of Royal 38 in Dallas with typical Asian spices fine, Thai meals are prepared here with the famous spices and fish sauces. You can also look forward to fine vegetarian cuisine, Furthermore, the customers love the successful combination of different meals with new and partially experimental ingredients - a good example of successful Asian Fusion.
