What User likes about Rose's Fine Food: In a part of Detroit where every third house is abandoned with smashed out windows, there is a bastion of hope – politically, culturally, and racially – named Rose's Fine Foods. It's a breakfast-lunch diner with rough wooden tables, sturdy chairs, and everything made from scratch. It emanates a relaxed, earthy vibe for a broadly diverse clientele with service that's intelligent and warm. They actually pay their wa... read more.
