I didn't stop thinking about this place as somewhere next to the best place for lunch or a short piece since I went the other day. Very friendly faces, exceptional vegetables and cold cuts, many different options and a beautiful interior to pack everything. I'm going to lunch tonight. Thanks for reading read more. What matthew mcgahan doesn't like about The Brown Bag:

I ordered a blt, a small juice, a fruit cup, a medium lemonade, a bowl of soup and a plain bagel. It cost us 34 dollars without the suggested tip line on the receipt (which did not show the price of the items or the total tax). The soup was roomtemperature at best and my bagel did not come with the requested cream cheese but instead about half a tub of butter. The inside is dirty cramped and apparently under perpetual...
