This is a great place to cook and excellent service. The meat was dying. The cheesecake was the best I tasted. I strongly recommend stopping for a visit. When we arrived, the place was beaten and loud. I got the chicken stable I said was really good. The taste was good of stew, but it did not really have a chicken in it; just a few strings. I think I have something at the end of the pot. Luckily, it didn't cost too much, or I would have been really pissed for payment for only stew and no chicken.

Other than that, everything else ordered was good View all feedback.
