What User likes about Kaiseki Furukawa: This was once in a life experience and I'm so glad Minnesota has this jewel. The food was absolutely delicious, we ate things that were cooked in a way that I never imagined, for example vinegar jelly!? It was lovely. I cannot express in words how amazing this restaurant is, you just have to try, but make sure to save it for a special occasion, but it is worth every cent. View all feedback. What User doesn't like about Kaiseki Furukawa: We sat 45 minutes after our reservation. We were told that our Bar-Tab card is taken from the long waiting period – they still accused us of appetizers and two drinks. The experience was fun, but the food was either bland or too salty. Very small portions and several had repeated elements. Overall we were disappointed with the food, but the service at the bar and once we sat in the restaurant were excellent. I would...
