love eating here, although it comes most for the boba. while their menu is not expansiw, it offers enough options to fit the most. there is a huge drink menu that covers everything from boba to beats to snow to hot drinks. her fried rice has the fire flavor (wok cooked over an open flame). crab rangoons are happy filled with a beautiful taste of crab (or crab and a bit sweet). I would like to see if the roasted rice... View all feedback. What User doesn't like about St Louis Bubble Tea:

the type that made the bubbled seemed very slow, unraveled and flustered. he served two people who ordered us and took five minutes, so I had to ask when we got our order. several people went out because they were fed with the waiting period. When he did it, it took 1 minute. I give him two stars, because the blown one at least tasted good. otherwise the service was cruel. View all feedback.
