this restaurant is removed from the newer hess brewery in the seaport village. they have a good choice of food, as a rare menu find fried pickle. I took a risk and got the calamari that was good, not gummy or chewing as I fear they will be. my friend got the fish and chips and I got a few bites of the fish also delicious! both meals were hot and received in good portions. they also have a good beer selection, and we b... doesn't like about Marion's Fish And Seafood:

first I ordered a combo with a certain beside court and paid for it, then when my order was finished, they told me they didn't have it and let me take something else. secondly, eating is very bland, even the cucumber-nebenlimmonade I ordered was pretty bad. all in all, a waste of money!
