I really enjoyed this restaurant. The word unpretentious came to mind while eating here. It isn't that the restaurant is not trying to impress, it is just that they do not feel the need to put on airs. My server Keith was very nice and attentive throughout the visit. The onion rings were massive, a half order could probably feed four people easily. Tried both the 10oz filet as well as the 14oz New York Strip. Both we... View all feedback.
