Updated review from two years ago: The place is really large and nicely decorated, with plenty of indoor and outdoor seating options. The staff and servers are always amazing. Super polite, helpful and friendly. I also think the quality of food has also increased. Drink me u is also really good! Recomend if you are into tex-mex… View all feedback. What Scott McMillan doesn't like about Sylvias Enchilada Kitchen:
I've eaten at the old Westheimer location and the one off of Woodway. They were both good. This one has become like a glorified Taco Bell. The last couple of times I've been there and gotten a taco and chalupa plate, the meat was cold. They reheated the plate, not recooked the food, which I told them was unacceptable. The last time I went and ordered the same plate and complained about the meat being cold, the manage... View all feedback.
