My husband and I stayed at the Sheraton just a block away and were pleasantly surprised that a gay bar was so close. We went on a random Tuesday, both before and after dinner. The earlier bartender was pleasant and very attractive. Later, a different bartender was less chatty but had more patrons. The place was pretty quiet, making it easy to talk and socialize. The drinks were good and not expensive (compared to San... View all feedback.

What Fernando Galindo doesn't like about Mad Myrnas:

I went in had a few drinks. Did not eat. I did not find this place very accepting or pleasant in any way. I don't dress that neatly but my money spends like anybody else's does. I felt ignored and in a unfriendly place. If you are young and dress well likely you would be received better. This is how fickle people can be, View all feedback.
