Good service, good food, but if you switch your homes fries for mash potatoes, you have to pay extra, the waiter should of pointed that out before offering to switch them. Other than that, everything eles was good. View all feedback. What Justin G doesn't like about Lexington Diner:

I open up one of my pancakes and noticed that it's still undercooked since the middle is still soft like uncooked batter. Very disappointed since normally my orders came out fine but the increase of food missing in my family's orders and the uncooked pancake is the final straw. I would not be returning as a customer until Lexington Diner can fix up their timing for cooking and take outs. View all feedback.
