Very nice place for some authentic mexican food! They are really nice to your kids, and understanding if they make a little mess. I give them 4 stars based on the protein they cook up something is just off. It is REALLY dry, and we all found ourselves needing to add a bunch of salsa to be able to get it down; flavor was good, and again we will need to come back to see if maybe we hit them up at a bad time. Came through after an 8 hour drive looking forward to an experience based on the reviews. We ordered the simplest items on the menu, a burrito and a torta. We waited an hour for our food and when it came out the torta was placed in the middle of the beans making it a mess to pick up to eat. A man who might have been the manager came to our table and when we brought it to his attention he said well you ordered rice an... View all feedback.
