Best tasting handheld burrito in Pueblo! Such a lovely place to eat. It's a walk up and order at the window establishment. Betty's son Gino Lopez owns it now, I think. He's nice. They have a big menu of Mexican food, but I always get either the Pork and avocado burrito or the Bean, chicarron and and green chile burrito. Both are absolutely yummy. The chile is a sauce, not just diced green chiles. Everything is fresh... View all feedback.

What Hugo Wicki doesn't like about Burrito's Betty:

I love this place! the bohnenkäse burrito with green chile is a go-to. they really need to set up a better system to call out entries like the number on the entry or the name of the customer. stick the bag of food out of the window and only (fast) what the food is making it confusing for all waiting. we have no idea whether it is ours and it becomes a frustrating guessing game. many things would be solved by making i...
