You can also contact them through their website. In Wahoo, NE, the drive-thru at this particular Subway location might be a bit of a tight squeeze with cement walls, but the food received good reviews. However, cleanliness seems to be an issue as one customer noted various dirty areas within the restaurant, though the staff attributed it to a lack of proper cleaning supplies. Despite this, another reviewer had a positive experience with quick and accommodating service. Pricing was noted to be reasonable, with suggestions to save half of a footlong for later to justify any rising costs. Another customer also had a great experience with exceptional service from an employee named Bryson. Overall, while there may be some cleanliness concerns, the great customer service and tasty food may very well make up for it at this Subway location.
