This restaurant in Grand Rapids has been a long-time favorite for many regular customers, offering good food, great service, and a varied menu at fair prices. However, recent reviews have been mixed, with some diners expressing disappointment in the quality of the food and service. Despite this, others have praised the knowledgeable and friendly staff, reasonable prices, and enjoyable dining experience. It seems that the inconsistency in quality control and service may be affecting the overall reputation of this once beloved establishment.
