The Subway in Smithville has had mixed reviews in the past, with some customers expressing disappointment in the service and food quality. Complaints ranged from dry sandwiches to unprofessional behavior of staff members. However, recent changes in management seem to have brought about a positive transformation to the restaurant. Customers have noticed improvements in cleanliness, ingredient freshness, and overall service. With a renewed focus on efficiency and attentiveness, the Subway in Smithville is receiving praise for its efforts to turn things around. While some patrons may still have reservations about the chain's food quality, it appears that the new team is working hard to change perceptions and win back customers.
