The atmosphere at T.Jin China Diner may have been lacking with a strange smell and dirty environment according to some reviewers, but the service was consistently praised for being fast and friendly. While some customers were not impressed with the food, others found dishes like sesame chicken and sweet and sour chicken to be delicious and fresh. Despite mixed reviews on the food quality, many still found T.Jin China Diner to be a good place to visit for Asian cuisine with decent prices and large portions. Overall, the restaurant seems to have a loyal following, with some diners looking forward to returning in the future.
