The Shooting Star Saloon is a hidden gem in Utah, offering a unique historical experience with its status as the oldest running saloon west of the Mississippi. The atmosphere is cozy and inviting, with a quiet back patio adorned with fairy lights. The star burger, a popular menu item, impresses diners with its fresh meat and unique addition of sausage/hotdogs. Despite being cash-only, the reasonable prices make it a worthwhile visit for those seeking a taste of local flavor. The service, while occasionally lacking in efficiency, is overall friendly and welcoming. The lack of side options may be a downside, with only plain potato chips available, but the quality of the burgers makes up for it. Overall, the Shooting Star Saloon is a must-visit destination for those looking for an authentic taste of history and a delicious meal in a charming setting.
