Yakuza offers a diverse menu with delicious options that cater to sushi lovers as well as those who prefer cooked food. While the food is on the pricier side, the quality makes it worth it for many. However, some diners have raised concerns about the timing and service, with instances of dishes coming out at different times and delays in receiving orders. Despite these issues, the innovative and delicious dishes, such as the V.S.O.P. Lamb and Lobster Roll, have left many patrons eager to return for more. The restaurant also offers convenience for concert-goers with discounts and close proximity to Ramshead, making it a popular choice for pre-show dinners. Live music and a pleasant atmosphere add to the overall experience, making Yakuza a go-to spot for many looking for a culinary adventure.
