Mandu is a Korean restaurant located on K St NW that offers a relaxed atmosphere and bountiful food without the pressure of cooking your own meal.

Despite some recent disappointments, including overcooked seafood and undercooked eggplant, the establishment still offers standout dishes like the spicy beef stew and KFC chicken appetizer. The service, while different due to Covid restrictions, is appreciated, with orders taken through your phone and food brought to the table. The menu, while lacking pictures, offers delicious and authentic options like the dolsot bibimbap. Overall, Mandu provides a memorable dining experience with excellent service, making it a fantastic spot for Korean cuisine in D.C.
