For changing offers, please get in touch via phone or use the contact details provided on the website. Overall, reviews for the restaurant are mixed. Some customers were disappointed by the food quality and service, with complaints ranging from undercooked eggs to rude waitstaff. However, others praised the nostalgic atmosphere, friendly service, and delicious food options. The menu offers a wide selection and the diner itself is a restored 1940 Silk City Dining Car. Despite some negative experiences, there were many positive reviews highlighting the great food, reasonable prices, and excellent service. It seems like a unique spot worth trying if you find yourself in the quiet city of Vermont.
