Madras Café, located in the Bay Area, is a popular restaurant known for its authentic South Indian cuisine. The restaurant may be crowded, but the tasty food and friendly staff make it worth the wait. Large portions can be challenging to finish for those accustomed to smaller servings in South India. Dishes like dosas, idlis, and vadas are highly recommended, while the sambar is particularly delicious. Although the coffee and tea may not be exceptional, the overall dining experience at Madras Café is positive. The quality of food has been consistent over the years, and the prices are affordable. Visitors looking for a taste of South India in California should definitely consider visiting Madras Café.
