Here you can find the menu of Country Kitchen in Bakersfield. At the moment, there are 20 meals and drinks on the menu. You can inquire about changing offers via phone. This restaurant has received mixed reviews, with some praising the welcoming atmosphere, delicious food, and friendly staff, while others were disappointed with certain menu items. The wait time to be seated can be a bit long, but the service is generally prompt and efficient. While some enjoyed the biscuits and gravy, others found them lacking in flavor. The New York steak received positive feedback for its taste and quality, while the breakfast skillet was also a crowd favorite. Overall, the restaurant offers a decent value for the price, with a cozy, old-timey diner feel that many patrons appreciate.
