Sal's restaurant receives a mix of reviews, with some customers experiencing less-than-desirable encounters. One individual was disappointed with overpriced, burnt pizza, while another encountered hair in their chicken wings, leading to an unpleasant aftermath. Some found the food mediocre and the service inconsistent, with specific complaints about rude staff and incorrect orders. However, others praised the delicious food options, particularly the pizza and chicken marsala, as well as the exemplary service provided by attentive and friendly staff. Overall, while the restaurant may have its faults, it seems to have garnered a loyal following who appreciates the delicious food and efficient service.
