For changing offers, please get in touch via phone or use the contact details provided on the website. The restaurant offers a limited vegetarian option with a disappointing hummus sandwich, but the flatbread with apricot jam is delicious. Despite some issues with service, the creative and delicious food is worth the wait. Some dishes like the goat cheese noodles may be overwhelming in flavor. The atmosphere at the museum restaurant is excellent for families and dates with high-quality menus, professional service, and live music. Patrons who visit can enjoy a cozy and festive environment, with the added bonus of watching fireworks from the window. Overall, Muse has the potential to become a great downtown restaurant if more people discover it. The cream brûlé is especially noteworthy.
